

REGION C AWARDS

Region C Awards Committee

Region C Awards Committee: The Region C Awards Committee shall be appointed by the Region C Director and shall be comprised of an active brother from each section within the region as well as one additional brother who shall serve as chair of the committee, and the Region Director or his/her designee. This committee shall develop and present regional awards as necessary or appropriate to recognize individuals, chapters and other organizations for their service to the Region. The Region C Awards Committee may also either award a Region C Distinguished Service Award or refer any nominations to the chapters of Region C at a Regional Conference or National Convention. The awards committee shall meet at each regional conference and national convention, or as otherwise needed.

Adopted by the Region's chapters at the region conference - January 15, 2000, Norman, Oklahoma

Region C Distinguished Service Award

The Region C Distinguished Service Award is the highest award that may be conveyed by the Region. It may be conveyed by the chapters in good standing in the region or by the Region C Awards Committee.

Nominations:

Nominations may be made by any active brother, alumni, sectional or regional staff member affiliated with Region C.

Voting:

A Regional DSK may be presented either

- by an affirmative vote of 3/4 of the Region C Awards Committee, or
- by a 2/3 affirmative vote of all chapters present and eligible to vote at a Regional Conference or National Convention.

Adopted by the Region's Chapters at the region conference - January 15, 2000, Norman, Oklahoma

From Appendix K of the Alpha Phi Omega Board Policy Manual

REGIONAL DISTINGUISHED SERVICE KEY

A red key awarded to persons who have distinguished themselves through outstanding service to their region. Selection is made by an established or special regional committee.

Criteria:

- Distinguished service on a regional basis; that is, making an outstanding and unique contribution to the region as a whole.
- Exemplifying and furthering in demonstrable ways the principles of leadership, friendship and service.
- Making a sustained contribution in a leadership role over a period of time.